- (d) reverse assemble or otherwise attempt to discover any source code relating to the Website or any tool therein, except to the extent that such activity is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation.

(e) attempt to access any area of the Website to which access is not authorised.

4. Electronic Communications

By using the Website or communicating with SMEasy by electronic means you consent and acknowledge that any and all agreements, notices, disclosures, or any other communications satisfy any legal requirement, including but not limited to the requirement that such communications shall be “in writing”.

5. Agreement in Terms of Section 21 of the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act 25 of 2002

5.1 The User agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions and agrees that such agreement is concluded in Durban (South Africa) at the time the User enters the Website for the first time.

5.2 No information or data on the Website shall constitute an offer to do business but is an invitation to do business.

5.3 No e-mail communication shall be deemed to have been received by SMEasy until a response has been issued by SMEasy acknowledging receipt thereof. An automatically generated response from SMEasy shall not fulfil this requirement.

5.4 Electronic signatures, encryption and/or authentication is not required for valid electronic communications between the User and SMEasy.

5.5 The User agrees and warrants to SMEasy that any Data Messages that are sent to SMEasy from a computer, IP address or mobile device ordinarily used, or owned, by the User, was sent and/or authorised to be sent by the User.

5.6 SMEasy uses all reasonable endeavours to ensure that the Service provided through the Website is accurate and complete. We provide the Service “as is”, without any warranties whatsoever. We shall not be responsible, in any way whatsoever, for any liabilities, claims, demands, actions, costs, damages and/or loss arising from the reliance, or use, of the Service, provided on the Website, or from the non-availability of the Website for any reason whatsoever.

6. Links

6.1 The Website may provide links to other websites for your convenience. Such links must not be construed to constitute any relationship or endorsement of the linked third party. Use of the linked third-party website and information or content set out therein is done at your own risk, and SMEasy shall not be held responsible, whether directly or indirectly, in any way for the contents, use or inability to use, or access, any linked websites or any links contained in a linked website.

6.2 SMEasy may provide links to other websites for your convenience or for providing contact details of lenders. You acknowledge that any use of this information is done at your own risk and SMEasy is not responsible, whether directly or indirectly, in any way for the outcomes of any interactions you may have as a result of your use of this information.

6.3 Any third party that would like to link their website to the Website must obtain prior written permission from SMEasy by sending such request to info@smeasy.co.za who shall have the sole discretion to determine whether or not to approve the link and if so, with what terms and conditions.

7. Data Protection and Privacy Policy

Please read our Privacy Policy and our PAIA/POPI Manual.

7.1 SMEasy may process, which includes, collecting (whether electronically or submitted to us by you), storing and using any information supplied by you during the course of your use of the Website. Such information may be Personal Information as set out above or relating to your business, company or other legal entity. SMEasy may collect, store, use and process (including sharing with third-parties if applicable) such information in accordance with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 and any other applicable legislation in the Republic of South Africa. You warrant that you are authorised to provide us with any information you may supply to us and hereby consent to SMEasy's processing and any further processing of such personal information.

8. Copyright and Intellectual Property Rights

8.1 All intellectual property on the Website, including but not limited to content, trademarks (or any confusingly similar trademarks), logos, pictures, videos, downloads, domain names, patents, design elements, software, source code, meta tags, databases, text, graphics, icons and hyperlinks are the property of, or are licensed to, SMEasy and are protected from infringement by domestic and international legislation and treaties. All rights in, and/or to, the content of the Website are reserved and retained by SMEasy and/or the owners of such rights.

8.2 Users of the Website are granted a limited licence for general use, granting the User, subject to these Terms and Conditions, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited and revocable right to access, use, download and otherwise copy the current and future content of the Website for personal, non-commercial and informational purposes only.

9. Security

9.1 If access to any portion of the Website requires a login and your details, all reasonable steps will be taken to secure your personal information. You undertake not to divulge your username and password to any other person.

9.2 Users are prohibited from violating or attempting to violate the security of the Website, including, but without limitation to:

(a) accessing data not intended for such User or logging into a server or account which the User is not authorised to access;

(b) attempting to probe, scan or test the vulnerability of a system or network or to breach security or authentication measures without proper authorisation;

(c) attempting to interfere with the Service to any User, host or network, including, without limitation, via means of submitting a virus to the Website, overloading, "flooding", "spamming", "mailbombing" or "crashing" the Website;

(d) sending and/or posting unsolicited e-mail, including promotions; advertising content and/or advertising of products or services;

(e) forging any TCP/IP packet header or any part of the header information in any email or newsgroup posting;

(f) deleting or revising any material posted by any other person or entity; and/or

(g) using any device, software or routine to interfere or attempt to interfere with the proper working of the Website or any activity being conducted on the Website.

9.3 Violations of system or network security may result in civil and/or criminal liability.

10. Exclusion of Liability

10.1 It is a Term and Condition of the use of the Website that you expressly agree that use of the Website is entirely at your own risk. The Website contents are provided on an "as is" basis without any warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, to the accuracy of the contents of the Website. Without limiting the generality of this clause, the following warranties are expressly excluded:

(a) compatibility of the Website with your technology, equipment or software;

(b) uninterrupted or error-free functionality of the Website; and

(c) non-infringement of any rights.

10.2 SMEasy makes no representations or warranties about the accuracy, reliability, completeness or timeliness of the information, material, services, software, text, and graphics set out on the Website. Insofar as the Website contains links to any other internet websites, you acknowledge and agree that SMEasy does not have control over any such websites and shall therefore not be liable in any way for the contents of any such linked website, nor for any costs, expenses, losses or damages of any nature whatsoever arising from your access and/or use of any such website.

10.3 Whilst SMEasy has taken reasonable measures to ensure the integrity of the Website and its contents, no warranty, whether express or implied, is given that the Website will operate error-free or that any files, downloads or applications available via the Website are free of viruses, trojans, bombs, time-locks or any other data, code or harmful mechanisms which has the ability to corrupt or affect the operation of your system.

10.4 In no event shall SMEasy, its employees and/or any third-party contributors of material to the Website be liable for any costs, expenses, losses and damages of any nature arising out of or in any way connected with your use of the Website, your inability to use the Website and/or the operational failure of the Website.

10.5 You indemnify SMEasy, its owners, directors, employees, officials, agents, suppliers and/or representatives and keep them fully indemnified from, and against, any loss or damage suffered, or liability incurred by you, or in respect of, any third party, which arises from your use of the Website.

10.6 In no event shall SMEasy, its employees and/or any third-party contributors of material to the Website be liable for the outcomes of any loan application you may make, nor are they liable for any misrepresentation by, or of, the lender and/or the lenders' products.

11. Costs

Any costs incurred by Users in respect of any advice sought in relation to these Terms and Conditions shall be for their own account.

12. Severability

Each and every term of the Terms and Conditions must be read as separable from the other Terms and Conditions. Should any court or qualified authority find that any of the terms are invalid or unenforceable, the other Terms and Conditions will remain valid and enforceable, despite any invalidity or unenforceability of an individual term.

13. Non-Waiver

The failure of either party to require performance of any provision of the Terms and Conditions at any time, shall not affect the right of such party to require performance of that provision, or of any other provision in the future. No waiver by either party with respect to a breach of any provision of the Terms and Conditions shall be construed as a waiver with respect to any continuing or subsequent breach of that provision, or as a waiver of any other right in the Terms and Conditions.

14. Law

The Website is owned and operated from the Republic of South Africa. These Terms and Conditions and the use of, or inability to use, the Website are accordingly governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

15. Cancellation Policy

CANCELLATION of PRODUCT

In the event of the product being used from the Website and activated, you may still cancel any future monthly payments. Such cancellation must be received in writing and a full calendar month's notice is required. Cancellations for annual EFT payments will only be accepted for the date of termination for the period and no refunds, pro-rata or other, will be considered.
